

In the Northern Direction we consistently reach out to community, share information and renew our commitment to ending woman abuse. We create strategies by integrating lessons learned working with community, accessing their needs and continuing to travel around the wheel. As we organize and inspire all to join together in our struggle to end violence in our communities, we also remember the women who have died as victims of abuse and violence and move forward toward healing.

Community Healing Prevention Strategy

